"CAPTAIN'S REPORT"

October 2007

Thanks to the 4th KY. for all your help with the school program and the national reenactment. I couldn't have done it without you boys, so thanks. We have 14 men committed to Nash Farm. I'm sending in the registration today. I will collect the money when we get down there.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEKEND:

- Meeting the "two-faced man," James Hooker after 10 years.
- Me riding a horse and not falling off.
- Seeing the long line of men cresting the hill for the first time at the reenactment.
- Being the largest company in the battalion.
- The rest was blur. Was I really there??

Your Obedient Servant,

C.H. Johnston

C.H. Johnston Captain
